Figure 4. MST result by content statistic model and Jaccard distance. The phyla including more than 10 species are distinguished with different color, and the MST result is manually pro-processed to group species in the phylum and class levels.